STRATFORD

Tea and Coffee Tax—A Large Birthday — 24 Presidents — People Coming and Going—Movings—Masons.

Teddy Lewis left for Washington yesterday afternoon on the Colonial express.

Howard Curtis is home from Yale for the spring holidays.

There is considerable opposition in town to the proposed tax on tea and coffee, and a petition is in circulation addressed to the Hon. E. J. Hill "vigorously protesting against any duty or tax on tea or coffee by Congress", and asking Mr. Hill to use his influence before the Ways and Means committee toward the defeat of any such measure. Among the well known citizens of the town who have signed this petition are Rev. A. V. R. Abbott, Plumb & Bartram, S. C. Dickinson, Rev. C. B. Bullock, C. S. Goodale, E. L. Hanson, C. B. Curtis, Harold C. Lovell, W. H. Fryer and Grand Juror David R. Rhoades.

A surprise party was given to Homer Wilbur Porter on Wednesday evening in honor of his 53d birthday. His friends to the number of nearly seventy assembled at his residence on Judson Place, coming from Bridgeport, Milford, and other towns. Mr. Porter had been anxious to go to New York all day, and it was only by resorting to various subterfuges that he was induced to remain at home. The evening was very enjoyable for all who attended, and the hours passed swiftly by with music, dancing, games and a bountiful spread, consisting of cakes, cream, fruits, salads, chicken, candy, punch, sandwiches, coffee and coco. A few of the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burger and son, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hall, son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Jensen and two daughters, Mrs. Francis L. Severance, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton, Miss Julia Leopold, Miss Catherine Donovan, Miss Hazel Lynsco, Miss Gladys Cobb, Mr. Andrews, Mr. Bush, Miss Jennie Frederick, Mr. Berner, Mrs. Bathe and son of Milford, Clarence Baldwin and John McKenna of Milford, Fernand Brunelle who presided at the piano, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fowler and son, Mrs. Emma Williams, Mrs. Edward Skinner, Miss Pearl Porter, Harold and Harry Mott of Bridgeport, Mr. Costandy and Mrs. A. L. Summers and son of Bridgeport.

Wednesday George Keeler Wilson took an automobile trip to Cheshire and Waterbury.

The man who recently died in town, aged 96, and who is said to have voted for 24 Presidents, must have repeated, or else he began to vote before he was 21. Perhaps he voted for Fremont, Greeley, Hancock, Bryan and a few others, besides those who were elected.

There are signs that L. B. Peck is improving in health. He is now able to sit up and take notice.

George E. Kelly, after a very pleasant visit in town, has returned to Northampton, Mass.

It is announced that on the Thursday after Easter the Women's Aid Society of the Congregational church will give a tea party and at the same time combine business with pleasure by holding a cake and candy sale.

Edward Bond and children have gone to Providence, R. I., to live. Mr. Bond having business in that city.

A number of our prominent Masons have over to the Stratfield a few days ago to attend a Scottish Rite celebration. In the trolley one saw John L. Porter, Rollin B. Curtis, Swan Brewster, Charles F. Judson, Edmund H. Judson and George T. Jewell.

The Epworth League held a meeting last night at the Methodist church. The frame for the new house for Dr. Rollin B. Curtis, Judson Place, is being raised.

The Knowles family has gone to Bridgeport to live. One by one our old families are leaving.

W. N. Pierce of the Boston Idaho Mining Co., has been visiting in town.

The Buttery family from Shelton thinks of coming to town to live.

During the coming Easter vacation several of our good looking school teachers propose to visit Washington.

There is said to be renewed life in the Masonic Building Association. The strings of spring-time, no doubt. Some day we hope to see new life in the proposed Russell building, which once was so much in evidence.

Miss Ethel Lovell intends to come on from Colorado this summer. She may take a spin into Maine before she returns.

Miss Edna Falken will most likely come on from Oakland, Cal., for the summer. Her many friends will be pleased to greet her.

Mrs. George A. Fairchild is entertaining Mrs. M. Morgan of Concord, N. H.

It is said that there are in town a number of pink eyes. Goo goo eyes have long been in evidence.

Mrs. Robert J. Wheeler now occupies C. E. Stage's cottage on Warwick avenue.

Irving Shaw has found employment in the Locomobile works, Bridgeport.

The Bayne family is moving into the Hunt cottage. Change is the order of the day.

Who is who in Bridgeport? Read the Evening Farmer Monday, April 5, 1909, then you know.

SCARLET FEVER ON BATTLESHIP MISSOURI

(Special from United Press.) Boston, April 2.—The United States battleship Missouri, at the Charles town Navy Yard, is quarantined and today the quarantine flag warns all persons to keep away from her. Extra guards are posted in the vicinity. Scarlet fever has been discovered among the members of the ship's crew and up to today a total of eight genuine and nine "suspect" cases had developed.

It takes 13.82 cubic feet of air to weigh a pound.
